ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

About Competition

Ilinden Kayak Slalom is one of the most popular sports manifestation in Macedonia held on international level.

Organized by the Macedonian Canoe Federation, the first IKAS competition took place in 1969.

IKAS winners: Andraž Vehovar (1996), Shaun Pearce (1998), Mathias Röthenmund (1999), Peter Kauzer (2001), Lazar Popovski (1993-1995, 1997, 2004), Atanas Nikolovski (2005, 2007-2010).

The incoming IKAS 2011 will continue the tradition on international level, promising you fast race and excellent results.

About Location

The Canyon Matka is located only 15km from the Capital of Macedonia, Skopje. Besides the artificial accumulation on the River Treska, the Canyon is significant for the many above and under water ancient caves.

Noted for the historical monuments and preserved nature, it represents one of the most visited tourist locations in Macedonia.

It is a perfect place for sports activities, such as fishing, alpinism, kayak and many more.
